Each clock on the left shows the time when a child left for school. Each clock on the right shows the time when they arrived at school.

Work out how long it took each of them to get to school.